terms of the preferreds that will:

- Eliminate the rights of the preferred holders to require Emmis to redeem all or a portion of their shares on the first anniversary of certain going-private transactions;

- Provide for the automatic conversion of any preferreds not exchanged upon the merger into $5.856, the amount that would be paid to holders of the class A common stock into which the preferreds were convertible immediately prior to the merger;

and

- Eliminate the right of the preferred holders to nominate directors to Emmis' board.

For the amendments to be effective, they must receive the vote of holders of two-thirds of the outstanding preferreds.

Alden, which currently holds 41.4% of the preferreds, has agreed to vote in favor of the amendments and exchange its preferreds for notes.

The exchange offer will be conditioned on the receipt of consents from holders of two-thirds of the outstanding preferreds, the affirmative vote of more shares of class A common stock and class B common stock in favor than against each of the proposed amendments and at least 32.8% of the outstanding class A shares being tendered in JS Acquisition's tender offer.

Emmis is an Indianapolis-based diversified media company principally focused on radio broadcasting.

Cell Therapeutics to retire all remaining 4% convertible notes

By Jennifer Chiou

New York, July 1 – Cell Therapeutics, Inc. announced that it has deposited $39.3 million in cash with trustee U.S. Bank NA to redeem and retire the remainder of its 4% convertible senior subordinated notes due 2010.

The amount will also cover accrued interest.

“We are pleased that with recent successful financings we were in a position to retire all of our notes with a maturity in 2010,” chief executive officer James A. Bianco said in a news release.

“This should eliminate shareholder concerns over our ability to repay the notes with a maturity in 2010, and we will continue our focus on moving our products forward through the clinic and the regulatory approval process as expeditiously as possible.”

In various announcements in May, the company had agreed to exchange 1,863,564 shares of common stock for $779,000 of the notes on one occasion in addition to up to 60 million shares in exchange for up to $30 million of the convertibles in the middle of the month. The company terminated those exchange agreements on May 23.

Northern Rock holders tender $1.5 billion, £189.3 million securities

By Angela McDaniels

Tacoma, Wash., July 1 – Northern Rock (Asset Management) plc received tenders for $1,501,947,575 and £189,302,000 of upper tier II securities in a tender offer that expired at 5 p.m. ET on June 30, according to a company news release.

As previously reported, holders had tendered the following securities by 5 p.m. ET on June 15:

- $682.5 million of its $700 million of 5.6% perpetual fixed-to-floating rate subordinated notes;
- $648.1 million of its $650 million of 6.594% perpetual fixed-to-floating rate subordinated notes;
- All $100 million of its undated subordinated floating-rate notes;

- $66,883,500 of its $100 million of 8% undated subordinated notes; and
- £189,239,000 of its £200 million of 6¾% fixed-rate step-up undated subordinated notes.

After the early deadline, holders tendered an additional $2 million of the 5.6% notes, $2,464,075 of the 8% notes and £63,000 of the 6¾% notes.

The purchase price is $250 or £250 for each $1,000 or £1,000 principal amount of notes tendered by the early deadline and $200 or £200 for each note tendered after that time but prior to the offer expiration.

Holders will not receive accrued interest.

The settlement date was June 17 for notes tendered by the early deadline, and settlement for notes tendered after that time is expected to occur on July 2.

The tender offer began June 2.

In April, the company announced that it elected to forgo the optional June interest payments on the 6¾% fixed-rate step-up notes and the 8% subordinated notes.

The dealer managers were Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch (866 627-0391 or collect at 212 250-2955; 44 20 7545 8011) and Royal Bank of Scotland plc (877 297-9832 or collect at 203 897-6145; 44 20 7085 2338/44 20 7085 9178). Radio One extends subscription offer for 8 7/8%, 6 3/8% noteholders

By Angela McDaniels

Tacoma, Wash., July 1 – Radio One, Inc. extended the subscription offer under which eligible holders of its 8 7/8% senior subordinated notes due 2011 and 6 3/8% senior subordinated notes due 2013 can purchase up to $100 million principal amount of new 8½%/9% second-priority senior secured grid notes due 2016.

The expiration time was extended to 5 p.m. ET on July 15 from June 30, according to a company news release.

Noteholders who wish to participate in the subscription offer must also participate in the exchange offer and consent solicitation that began June 16.

As previously reported, the company is offering new 11%/12% senior grid notes due 2017 in the exchange offer.

The expiration time of the exchange offer remains 5 p.m. ET on July 15.

The company said it negotiated the terms of the offer with an ad hoc group of holders of about 80% of the existing notes under a support agreement. These holders agreed to tender their notes in the exchange and submit consents.

The support agreement will terminate if the offer is not completed prior to July 31.

Radio One is seeking tenders from holders of at least 95% of the existing notes. The offer is also contingent on the completion of the subscription offer as well as a new $400 million senior secured credit facility.

The majority of the net proceeds from the new 8½%/9% notes will be used to fund the acquisition of additional equity interests in TV One, LLC.

The exchange and subscription offers are being made only to qualified institutional buyers, institutional accredited investors and non-U.S. persons as defined under the Securities Act.
